

9 October, 2020

Dear church family and friends,

Have you ever pondered the unpredictability of Charleston weather? It can be frustrating at best.

Even so, we are planning to worship outside again this Sunday, October 11, at 8:30 a.m. With virtual worship available throughout the day. In the event of rain, we will have the Confirmands, their families, teachers, and worship leaders only in the gym at 8:30 to celebrate their confirmation as the next step in their journeys of faith.

If rain is the unwelcomed reality, a gentle reminder that you are invited and encouraged to worship online with our streamed service at www.jamesislandpc.org/live-stream, using the Boxcast app on your smart device, or on Facebook at 11:00 a.m.

I appreciate everyone's understanding of the uncontrollable variables we must consider in accommodating the in-person worship gatherings. Our plan has always been to hold outdoor worship for the Sundays of October as segue to moving back to indoor worship in the sanctuary. I am hoping and praying with you that circumstances will align and we can back to a more familiar way of worship as we have always known it and soon.

The entire staff appreciates your prayers, understanding and support as we do our best to make the best decisions for our community of faith.

Grace and peace to each of you!

I remain,
