Words of Welcome

Mother's Day Liturgy

by Amy Young, with Adaptations by Heidi Carrington

To those who birthed their first child this year – we celebrate with you.

To those who lost a child this year – we mourn with you.

To those who are in the trenches with little ones every day and wear the badge of food stains – we appreciate you.

To those who experienced loss through miscarriage, failed adoptions, or running away – we mourn with you.

To those who walk the hard path of infertility – we walk with you.

To those who are foster moms, mentor moms, and spiritual moms – we need you.

To those who have warm and close relationships with your children – we celebrate with you.

To those who have disappointment, heartache, and distance with your children – we suffer with you.

To those who lost their mothers this year, to death or dementia – we grieve with you.

To those who experienced abuse at the hands of your own mother – we acknowledge your experience and stand with you.

To those who lived through driving tests, medical tests, and the overall testing of motherhood – we are better for having you in our midst.

To those who have aborted children – we remember them and you on this day.

To those who are single and long to be married and mothering your own children – we are with you.

To those who step-parent – we walk with you on these complex paths.

To those who envisioned lavishing love on grandchildren, yet that dream is not to be – we embrace you.

To those who will have emptier nests in the upcoming year – we cry and rejoice with you.

To those who placed children up for adoption – we commend you for your selflessness and remember how you hold that child in your heart.

To those who are pregnant with new life, both expected and surprising – we anticipate with you.

To those with a child battling substance abuse, mental illness, or other struggles – we hold you in care.

To those who do not wish to be a mother, are not married, or in so many other ways do not fit into societal norms – we love you as you are.

This Mother's Day, wherever and whoever you are, we walk with you. You are loved, you are seen, you are worthy. And may you know the deep love without end of our big, wild, beautiful God, who is the very best example of a parent that we know.

Prelude

Storms

Mark Burrows

Call to Worship (Bold indicates congregation in unison)

Some people have come to worship, feeling that the storms of life threaten to overwhelm them.
Some of those people are us.

Some people have come to worship, wondering if God is really going to help them.
Some of those people are us.

Some people have come to worship, wondering if God can really forgive them, and if God can help them to forgive others.
Some of those people are us.

In scripture, word, and song, we seek the rescuing power of Jesus.

Jesus calls us, heals us, and loves us.

For these overflowing blessings, we give thanks and praise to God.

Let us worship God!

Prayer of Confession

God of transformation, we come here seeking awareness of your spirit filling us and forming us.

We know we need your spirit in the lives we live and the concerns we share.

Surrounded by the values of today's society, our lives are still brimming with fears and insecurities, self-doubts and uncertainties.

But we are called to be your sons and daughters in this storm-tossed world, and we long for your spirit to saturate our lives.

Help us to see and feel the liberating power of your love, and set us free to carry that love to those around us.

Make us aware of your presence here with us now, living in and through us this day and every day of our lives, as we confess our faults to you silently in the name of Jesus, our savior.

Silent Prayer

Assurance of Forgiveness

God is righteous and just, and forgives the iniquity of all who repent.

Like rain that falls on mown grass, like showers that water the earth, God's goodwill overflows toward us.

Through our risen Jesus, we ask forgiveness and claim mercy.

In the name of Jesus, we are forgiven. Thanks be to God!

*Glory to God #582

GLORY TO GOD

Glory to God, whose goodness shines on me, and to the son, whose grace has pardoned me, and to the Spirit, whose love has set me free. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Amen. World without end, without end. Amen. World without end, without end. Amen. World without end, without end. Amen. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Amen.

HEAR GOD'S WORD

Prayer for Illumination

We come to you, O God, with so many different concerns today, looking to the wisdom of your word for answers. Give each person here today exactly what we need to help us through the week. Let your word be our comfort, strength, encouragement, prompting, or blessing, depending on your Spirit's purpose, and may we take it to heart, in Jesus' name. Amen.
